Theme and Purpose

We all feel like our lives have been uprooted in some way these last couple of years, right?!

This year, we're coming back together to discover how: Christ will make his home in your hearts as you trust in him.

Your roots will grow down into God's love and keep you strong – Ephesians 3:17, New Living Translation.

Rising up to live out a lasting faith in Jesus starts with setting our roots in him, in his community, and in his mission in the world. Just like the roots of a plant... Are your roots keeping you strong? What are your foundations or the source you're connected to? What conditions are you surrounded by? What fruit are you bearing by the way you live?

Our guest speaker is Ansonia Wong, youth pastor from the Birmingham Chinese Evangelical Church. Many of us know Ansy from PHAT Camp, the annual youth camp for Chinese churches run in partnership with COCM.

Programme

There will be games, worship, teaching, sports, prayer, some surprises, and a life-changing experience!

You'll belong to a small group with other youths your age, where you can talk about what's going on in your head and your heart with a leader who will look after you.

At mealtimes we'll eat together in the Kingswood Kitchen.

During free time, you can make new friends, study if you need to, or join in with some activities that will be organised for you.

You'll also have the chance to attend a topical or creative workshop led by some of our amazing youth leaders.

The full camp schedule is available online. See below!
