

THE NEXT GENERATION MINISTRY PARTICIPATION CONSENT FORM

Name of Child(ren): _____

Ministry Group: _____

I hereby give consent for my child(ren) named above to participate in the activities of The Next Generation Ministry (Kids Church/Youth Groups), under the supervision of those appointed by the leadership of the relevant ministries of the Chinese Church in London (CCiL).

I agree not to hold CCiL responsible for the actions of my child or others involved, or for circumstances beyond the control of the leaders. I understand that the leaders reserve the right to take any action deemed necessary in order to protect any person from harm, including the right to send home any child for misbehaviour.

In the event of a medical emergency, I give full consent for the immediate administration of any emergency treatment deemed necessary by consulting medical personnel. I will inform the leaders in writing of any known conditions, allergies or special needs my child has, any medication taken by my child or any change in circumstances.

I acknowledge that there will be occasions when persons authorised by the church leadership may take photographs and videos of the children partaking in Kids Church and Youth Group activities within The Next Generation Ministry, or during other activities of CCiL. These may be used in documentation, publications, church events, and may appear on our website or social media. In order to safeguard members and young people, CCiL will not identify subjects of such images by name where these appear online.

I have provided full details of my child and parents' contact details through the online TNG registration.
