Theme and Purpose

As we celebrate the 75th Anniversary of CCiL in 2026 we are joining together all ages from across our English Ministry and The Next Generation for this year's Easter Camp!

We are so excited to come and “fan into flame the gift of God” (2 Timothy 1:6) through cross-generational fellowship and activities! The Church is a dynamic family that we are all invited to join and participate in, so join us as we grow in the Spirit of “power and love and self-control” (1:7). Especially at Easter as we remember and celebrate the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ which “saved us and called us to a holy calling” (1:9).

This year's guest speaker, Josh Shek, is a dear friend to us, regularly preaching in Sunday services and was our camp speaker at Youth Easter Camp in 2019. We look forward to welcoming him back as he unpacks 2 Timothy 1:6–10 for us.

So let us prepare our hearts through prayer as we yearn to see Generations for Revival. Come expectant to be Fired Up!

Programme

There will be worship, games, teaching, discussion, prayer, workshops, and some surprises! During free time, you can join in with organised activities or get to know others.

You'll belong to a small group to dig deeper into the ideas from all the keynote talks. Youths will be with other youths (secondary school ages), looked after by dedicated youth leaders, and adults will be in small groups with other adults.

Our children's programme (for primary school ages) will also run during all the main sessions and small group times.

Theme Night is back and we're going inter-generational... On Saturday evening of camp we're asking everyone to dress up “NOT your age!” Which generation will you come as...? Let's fire up the creativity! Please be ready and be appropriate.
