

New Soho Congregation Mandarin Ministry Sharing

This Sunday is Easter. On supermarket shelves, we see rabbits and chocolate eggs—but rarely any sign of Jesus. Yet, Lord, we belong to You. We will not forget that this is Your day. We desire to be people who share the gospel, proclaiming the wonderful good news of Your resurrection!

This weekend, many congregations of the Chinese Church in London will be holding Good Friday and Easter events. Inspired and encouraged, NSC Mandarin will be sharing the message of Jesus' resurrection in a unique way—by turning this good news into a “newspaper” and spreading it far and wide!

In this newspaper, there will be a special section featuring photos of passers-by. We will take photos on the spot and print them directly onto the newspaper, so that people can take home a meaningful and memorable copy of this good news. There will also be a “Quick Q&A” section, creating opportunities for our brothers and sisters to start conversations with passers-by and pray for them. In addition, there will be an “Explore Faith” section, offering a pathway for those who are interested to continue seeking and learning more.

Lord, You will lead, and we will follow. May this good news of Your resurrection be proclaimed far and wide. May many come to You and find true life through You!
