

The Next Generation - TNG Ministry Sharing

The Next Generation (TNG) Ministry exists to equip young people to build a lasting faith in Jesus. Every week across CCiL, we welcome over 450 under-18s, supported by more than 250 dedicated volunteers who serve, mentor, and walk alongside them.

While TNG has dedicated volunteers, discipling the next generation is a whole-church calling. A thriving intergenerational church is more than just sharing a building or a worship song; it means actively learning from one another across generations. Our young people carry the faith forward, while our older members provide valuable wisdom and experience. True integration happens when adults step into youth spaces, youth engage in wider church life, and faith conversations continue at home.

Every church member can help build up TNG Ministry; whether directly as a group facilitator or workshop leader, or indirectly by supporting events and fundraisers or providing food. Above all, we invite everyone to partner with us through prayer!

As the new academic year begins, please join us in praying for:

Leaders & Volunteers: For renewed strength, reliance on God's grace, and wisdom in teaching.

Young People: For curious minds, open hearts to God's truth, and strong, Christ-centered friendships.

Parents: For wisdom to model faith, lead spiritual conversations at home, and find encouragement within our community.

Staff Announcement

We would like to share that Becky Lee, Head of Finance in our Church Office Team, has resigned and left her role on 11th September.

Becky joined the Church Office in November 2025 at a time when additional support was needed within our finance function. During her time with us, she has made a valuable contribution to strengthening our financial processes and procedures, as well as providing support and leadership to the Finance Team. She also led the team through the successful completion of our most recent annual audit.

We give thanks to God for her faithful service among us. We pray that He will continue to lead and uphold Becky and her family, granting them His grace, peace and wisdom for the days ahead. Please join us in expressing our appreciation to Becky and remembering her and her family in prayer.
